

MUSIC AND ART FESTIVAL

October 28-30, 2026

Details:

The inaugural Music and Art Festival at Mount Ellis Academy is a special spiritual retreat for 7th–12th grade students to explore and celebrate their God-given creative talents. Visiting students will join Mount Ellis Academy students to collaborate on art projects, participate in activities in the newly renovated gymnasium, and unite as a choir to perform the musical numbers "Witness" by Greg Gilpin and "I Will Sing" by Priscilla Murphy.

Through engaging morning and evening worship services, participants will build lasting friendships and grow closer to Christ. The program begins with worship and choir practice on Wednesday evening, October 28, and concludes with a musical presentation on Friday morning, October 30. It will be an unforgettable experience you won't want to miss!

Cost: There is no cost for participants or sponsors of this event.

For groups of 6 or more , we request (but do not require) a chaperone to assist with supervision.*

Accommodations and Meals: A two-night stay on the MEA campus–Wednesday and Thursday nights, as well as all meals in the cafeteria, are included in the event.
